LITANY OF COMMEMORATION

Almighty and everlasting God, before whom stand both the living and the dead - for patriarchs, prophets, missionaries, and apostles; and for pastors and teachers, especially those through whom we have come to know and trust and follow you: We praise you, O God, and bless your holy name.

For the martyrs, those witnesses to your Son who in word and deed were faithful unto death rather than to deny him: We praise you, O God, and bless your holy name.

For all who have worked and suffered for political freedom, good government, and just laws; and for all who have given their lives for their country: We praise you, O God, and bless your holy name.

For our family members and dear friends, especially those who have died during the past twelve months _____, whom we see no more, but whose loving memory remains with us: We praise you, O God, and bless your holy name.

For the companions of our youth and for the members of this congregation who worship you now in heaven: We praise you, O God, and bless your holy name.

That we may hold them all in blessed remembrance and that the example of their piety may rest upon all our earthly days: We ask you to hear us, good Lord.

That we may ever think of them as being in your nearer presence; and that we may rest assured that where they are, by your grace we shall one day also be: We ask you to hear us, good Lord.

Oh, blest communion, fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine!
Yet all are one within your great design! Alleluia!

Together with the redeemed of every age, who have fought the good fight and who now rest from their labors, we join our unending hymn, uniting with them in ascribing thanksgiving, glory, honor, and power to you, O Lord our God. Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit! As it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
